

SEEKING BLOGGERS as CASUAL COLLABORATORS

The Quartiers Danses Festival is a yearly event dedicated to artistic events creation in contemporary dance and physical art forms. Its mission is to democratize contemporary dance, by making it more accessible to all audiences in traditional and unusual venues, and by offering shows that are presented by local and international artists using a multidisciplinary approach. The 15th edition of the festival will take place from September 7 to 17, 2017.

For more information: www.quartiersdances.com

We are currently seeking collaborating bloggers in the cultural field to support the publishing feed of the Quartiers Danses Festival website. The published feed would be about dance, performing arts, cultural meditation, and the artists featured in the festival. Delivery of the feed would be done on a monthly or bimonthly basis.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES

- Write a monthly or bimonthly article that will be posted on the FQD website.
- Travel to the different sections of the Quartiers Danses Festival to write about them.
- Do relevant terminological and information searches.

REQUIRED SKILLS

- Curious, creative and excellent written & verbal communication skills
- Excellent ability to write highly motivational, inspirational and information-filled articles that will encourage readers to take action.
- Excellent ability to identify relevant, playful and useful content, and to find catchy titles that foster discussion and create a buzz around the activities of the Quartiers Danses Festival.
- People skills and ability to conduct interviews and take photographs.
- Organizational skills and ability to work independently.
- Ability to work in a deadline-based environment and to respect the delivery schedule.

Conditions

- Partnership contract and visibility exchange
- Media pass for the festival
- Assignment begins in April 2017

Please send your resume and cover letter to Maité Godin no later than March 28, 2017:

communications@quartiersdances.com.