

CALL FOR PROPOSALS FOR DIRECTORS

SHORT FILM PRESENTATION ON DANCE

The Festival Quartiers Danses invites directors who wish to present a short film in Montreal or world premiere at its 19th edition, which will be held from September 10 to 19, 2021.

About the FQD

The FQD is an annual event dedicated to the creation of artistic events in contemporary dance and the art of movement. Its mission is to democratize contemporary dance in all its forms and hybridities by making it more accessible to all audiences in both traditional and unusual venues. The FQD is known for presenting artists who are mainly local, but also national and international. It adopts a multidisciplinary approach to creative dance through the presentation of shows, performances, installations, films, exhibitions, meetings, round tables and cultural mediation workshops.

To submit a project, please provide the following documents:

- The completed form on the next page
- A letter of interest to participate in the 19th edition of the festival in which it is specified that you apply to the short film component, the description of your project and your artistic approach;
- A biography of the director or company and a curriculum vitae;
- The entire short film proposed
